OUR CHILDREN ... OUR PASSION

WHY CALL THE FIRST NATIONS HEALTH CONSORTIUM?

Advantages of Enhanced Service Coordination

- ◆ Reduce stress of navigating service systems and Jordan's Principle applications
- ◆ Link families to provincial and federal resources
- ◆ Work collaboratively with other service providers
- ◆ Advocate for the children, their families and communities
- ◆ Support the family in telling their story
- ◆ Provide assistance to families with the appeals process
- ◆ Support a community driven application

WHO CAN CALL THE FIRST NATIONS HEALTH CONSORTIUM?

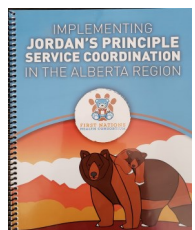

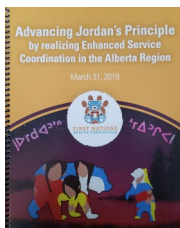

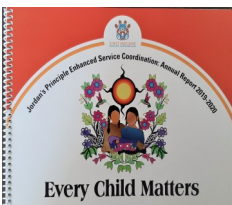

All Albertans can call on behalf of First Nations & Inuit children and youth. Our team shares knowledge of existing resources within Alberta, to all individuals requesting resource supports and information.

FIRST NATIONS HEALTH CONSORTIUM

First Nations Health Consortium supports families in accessing education, health or social programs to meet their child's needs. We strive to raise public and community awareness of our Enhanced Service Coordination for Jordan's Principle: a Child-First Initiative.

OUR VISION

Our Rights—Our People—Our Quality of Life

OUR MISSION

Working together, honoring and advocating for the needs of our First Nations People.

OUR VALUES

- Compassion: We seek to understand each other's individual and community experience.
- Fairness: We are fair and equitable in all actions and decisions.
- Love: We have love and affection for our people.
- Respect: We value and honor the diversity of First Nation's culture, languages and aspirations.
