

FIRST NATIONS
HEALTH CONSORTIUM

Enhanced Service Coordination for Jordan's Principle: A Child-First Initiative

CALL TOLL FREE: 1-844-558-8748

EMAIL: nochild4gotten@abfnhc.com

WEBSITE: www.abfnhc.com

WHY CALL THE FIRST NATIONS HEALTH CONSORTIUM?

The Benefits to Enhanced Service Coordination

- ◆ Reduce stress of navigating service systems and Jordan's Principle applications
- ◆ Link families to provincial and federal resources
- ◆ Work collaboratively with other service providers
- ◆ Advocate for the children, their families and communities
- ◆ Support the family in telling their story
- ◆ Provide assistance to families with the appeals process
- ◆ Support a community driven application

Examples of services for children

Educational Assistant, Psych-Ed Assessment, Tutoring, Educational materials, Assistive Technology

Mobility/Medical Equipment, Prostheses, Sensory items,
Ophthalmologist, Behavioral Therapist, Audiology

Specialized-Cultural Camps, Specialized Respite, Counselling Services

Occupational therapy, Physiotherapy, Speech & Language,
Pathology, Registered Massage therapy , Assessments

1-844-558-8748—SUPPORTING ALL OF ALBERTA

Office Locations: Bonnyville | Calgary | Edmonton | Fort Vermillion | Grande Prairie | High Level | High Prairie | Kainai
Lac la Biche | Lethbridge | Maskwacis | Rocky Mountain House | Siksika | Sturgeon Lake | Wabasca